OPEN-SOURCE SHARING AGREEMENT

This Open-Source Sharing Agreement (the "Agreement") is entered into as of 30 Oct 2026:

BETWEEN

The World Organisation for Animal Health ("WOAH"), an intergovernmental organisation headquartered at 12 rue de Prony, 75017 Paris, France;

and

Meryl Theng acting in his/her own name and on behalf of all team members set out in this Agreement. (the "Team Leader"),

The "Parties" shall mean WOAH and the Team Leader. With the exception of the Team Leader, the Participants are not party to this Agreement.

WHEREAS, WOAH has organised the International Datathon on Animal Health a data science competition taking place from 2026-06-01 to 2026-10-31 focusing on animal health surveillance, risk, trade and impact assessment (the "Datathon").

WHEREAS, the Participants are taking part in the Datathon and will submit code and associated models developed in the context of the Datathon (the "Submission").

Signing this document is a condition of eligibility to win the Datathon;

THE PARTIES AGREE AS FOLLOWS:

Article 1: Purpose

The Team Leader represents and warrants that all Participants have agreed and hereby agree to release their Submission under an open-source MIT licence. This allows any person or entity, including WOAH, to freely use, reproduce, modify, adapt and distribute the Submission without restriction and without any further action required.

For the avoidance of doubt, WOAH shall be entitled to freely use, reproduce, modify, adapt and distribute the Submission for any non-commercial purpose, free of charge and without further authorisation from the Participants.

Article 2: Participants Representation

The Team Leader warrants that he/she has been duly authorised by all Participants to sign this Agreement and act on their behalf in all matters relating to the Datathon. For the sake of clarity the Team Leader shall be the sole point of contact with WOAH, and no other Participants shall engage directly with WOAH in relation to this Agreement. Any disagreement or dispute among Participants shall be resolved internally within and between the Participants, without involvement of WOAH. The Team Leader also represents and warrants that all Participants, although they are not party to this Agreement, are fully aware of its content.

The Participants are:

Name	Affiliation	Team name
Meryl Theng	Team Leader	HASTE
Thao P. Le	Team Member	HASTE
Simin Lee	Team Member	HASTE
Chris Baker	Team Member	HASTE
Simon Firestone	Team Member	HASTE
Andrew Breed	Team Member	HASTE

Article 3: Eligibility Condition

The Team Leader represents and warrants that all Participants fully understand that the signing of this Agreement by the Team Leader is a condition of eligibility to win the Datathon but does not itself guarantee winning. Failure to sign, or withdrawal from the Agreement prior to the announcement of results of the Datathon, will result in the Participants' ineligibility to the Datathon.

Article 4: Warranty and Intellectual Property

The Participants retain full ownership of their respective intellectual property rights. This Agreement does not constitute a transfer of any intellectual property rights.

The Team Leader represents and warrants that:

(a) the Submission is the Participants' original work.

(b) the Submission does not infringe any intellectual property rights or any other rights of any third party, and that the Participants are fully authorised to grant the rights to the Submission.

In the event of any claim alleging that the Submission infringes any intellectual property rights of a third party, the Team Leader agrees to defend, indemnify and hold harmless WOAH against any liabilities, claims damages, costs and expenses.

Article 5: Term of the Agreement

This Agreement shall enter into force on the date of its signature by both Parties and shall remain in force for an indefinite period of time.

Article 6: Dispute Resolution

The Agreement shall be solely governed by its provisions, and, should it be necessary, by general principles of law, to the exclusion of any single national system of law.

Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to the interpretation, application or performance of the Agreement, including the existence, validity or termination thereof, will first be dealt with through amicable consultations between the Parties. In the event that such attempt at amicable consultations is not successful within thirty (30) working days after the date of a notice stating a dispute, controversy or claim, the Parties shall have the right to resolve such dispute through final and binding arbitration in accordance with the Permanent Court of Arbitration (PCA) Arbitration Rules applicable between international organisations and private parties as in effect on the date of the Agreement. The number of arbitrators shall be one. Unless the Parties otherwise agree, the language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English. The appointment authority shall be the Secretary General of the PCA. The arbitral tribunal shall have no authority to award punitive damages.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Parties have executed this Agreement as of the date first written above.
